He Played Baseball
 His Home Run Hit Captured the Heart of an Heiress.

It was a close and exciting game. Eight innings had been played, and the score stood a tie. Memphis had retired its opponent in the ninth inning without scoring. Memphis was at the bat. Two men were out. Two strikes had been called upon the man at the bat. The next ball pitched came straight toward him. Then it took a sudden curve. He swung his bat. Would he miss it? The excitement was painful. There was a quick, short stroke. Ah! he has hit the ball. Away high in the air it sails. See, the center fielder is chasing it. The spectators hold their breath. Suddenly there is one tumultuous shout. The ball has gone far over the head of the fielder, who is chasing it. Around the bases speeds the batter. He touches the home plate and the victory is won. Bouquets are showered upon him. He looks up just in time to see a lovely girl take a bunch of roses and throw them at his feet. As he gracefully picks them up their eyes meet. A humble ball player has captured a rich heiress.

"Go," she said to him two weeks later. "Go to the Miff Clothing Parlor, 262 Second street, and order your wedding suit." She was rich in common sense as well as wealth.

If you want the best of clothing for the least money, come to the Miff Clothing Parlor, 262 Second street, opposite Court Square.
